

Dear Family,

How are you all doing? I'm great! I am learning how to walk with a special black & white harness on and boy do I look good! I have also been taught how to make right and left turns. I know there is a lot of work ahead but I look forward to it!

Hope you all are well. Take care.

Wags and kisses,

Giselle