Playdates!

While my people were on vacation, I spent time at friends' houses and we played a lot!

Wilbur and I are inseparable. We love to spend all day together and when we have to go to bed in our own kennels, sometimes my people have to separate us. I wish we could spend all day and night together!

Snuggle Time!

While Mom works, I sleep nearby to make sure she knows that I am here and always available for treats!

Cool Bone!

This is my new friend Mr. Turtle. Although he cant run as fast as I do and he isn't interested in my bone, I had a great time playing with him while I was on my playdate!

More Turtle Time!

I even got to go to the Tournament of Roses House when my people got back from vacation. That was a super fun walk!
