Introduction

Hello again! It's Picsar here and I hope you're doing well! I'm great! I am now 8 months old and 75 pounds! I have grown so much since my last report! I have mastered sit, down, stand and stay in various environments and mom says I'm a very smart boy but I know that. Mom makes sure that she keeps taking me to new places so I can be ready for guide dog college but sadly, the hot summer has kept us home more than we like. Even though mom and I don't go out during the day... we still work on our obedience at home or around the neighborhood once it's cool enough. Well, I think it's time to show you everything I've done...!

School!

Once I turned six months old, I was able to start going to school with mom on her short days. So here I am in her Animal nutrition class! I settled in nicely... some of her classmates didn't even know I was there!

Here I am with Bethany, I got to help the class with body scoring a dog's weight. So everyone in the class had to feel my shoulders, ribs and hip bones! It was good practice for me to stand calmly while

Pool Day!

This is Maggie, she lives next door and she's my best friend! We have lots of play dates and this was our first swim date! I learned that I really like the pool!

My Friends!

Kirby and I at the Orange Block!

Aspen and I before our walk around
Aspen's neighborhood!

Orleans came over for a play date!

---

Open House and Puppy Trials!

Aspen and I went to the Open house together! We had so much fun! We even placed for the puppy trials. She got 1st place and I got 2nd place... Let's just say we are quite the power couple.

Bath Time!

Mom said something about me being smelly and I needed a bath so we visited Sudsy dog! That place so nice! I wasn't fond of the bath thing but I was a good sport. As you can see, Deedee and I made sure mom knew how we felt about this outing. I wish we went to the pet store instead.

Barnes and Noble!

Due to the hot weather, Mom and I go to Barnes and Noble a lot. It's right down the street from our house. So on the days when we can't go out.. we end up at Barnes and Noble! We practice my obedience and loose leash walking up and down the aisles!

As always, I just wanted to say thank you for being so generous and sponsoring me! I'm having so much fun learning and being a puppy in training. I hope you enjoyed this report and I can't wait to meet you at the golf tournament!

THANK YOU,
Love Picsar!
