At-Home Family Time

Since the “stay at home” orders have been in place we have been doing a lot of training on tie down, playing nicely while exciting toys are around, being calm with babies and dancing for exercise.

Practice Makes Perfect

Here I am practicing my down stay with other dogs around.

We have been taking lots of long walks. I'm trying to not smell the flowers.

New Challenges

Hanna (our trainer) has been giving us lots of challenges to do at home. Here I am practicing stay on different surfaces and taking the fan challenge. I am not afraid of either.

Training

Practicing impulse control. Mom is throwing a ball and I am waiting to be able to go after it until she says o.k. I am also taking the vacuum challenge. I do not even budge.

Outdoor Outing

We have been doing quite a bit of hiking, so we can practice being on leash outdoors. This is one of our hikes.

Lounging With My Sister

I do love cuddling with my sister, Paisley. She romps around with me and wears me out.

It's My Birthday!

I turned one year old. I got 3 new toys, but I shared them with my sister.

I have grown up so much. I now weigh 67 lbs, I finally got to go to the kennel for a few nights and had a blast playing with my roommate.

Pandemic-Style Outing

When things started opening a little more, I got to go to Armstrong Garden Center. I saw some interesting sights.

GDA Graduation

We went to a drive by graduation ceremony, where us dogs sat on the route and the graduates drove past us.
